■■■ Get your head in the game and your results will soar.

Before beginning it is important to take inventory and assess where you currently are on all levels of being. Then create your intentions or goals for the detox. Take the time to journal so you can become clear about what you want from this program and for yourself. Below are a few questions to help trigger your thoughts so you start to get clear on what you want.

What would you like to change or shift during this time?
Is there an area in your life you would like to focus on?
How does your body feel now? How would you like it to feel?
Do you have pain?
How are your energy levels?

How are your moods?
Do you feel happy, confident and content?
What are your current health concerns or issues?
How can you transform the "can't" or "shouldn't" into "can" and "will"?

My Detox Intentions

What do you intend to get out of your detox?
What do you really want for yourself and your health?
Who will you be when the detox is finished?
How will you have changed?
What will you feel like?

The more you can feel what you want, the more you can fuel your motivation. Use the questions as a guide to create a vivid picture and write it down.

My vision (for all areas of life)

Commitment to yourself (please initial each line):

- I commit to supporting my body and spirit as they have supported me for all these years.
- I commit to being honest with myself and others.
- I commit to cleansing myself of negative self-talk.
- I commit to cleansing myself of negative talk of others.
- I commit to having a body that is radiant, energized, clear and strong.
- I commit to making time for myself and taking care of myself so I can receive the full benefits of this program.
- I commit to focusing on my desired outcome, rather than getting caught up in how I will get there.

Remember: there will never be a right time to detox. My suggestion is that you make a commitment to yourself and stick with it. This will help you build trust with yourself.

How you do a detox is how you do everything. So if you only play at 50% here, then you most likely are playing at only 50% in other areas. Commit to each week and you will be amazed at how you feel and the confidence you will build. You can always go longer.

■■■ Tracking Your Progress and Journey

Daily or almost daily check-ins:

- ✓ What is working/what is going well? Keep your attention on what is working and what you are finding to be positive. By doing this, you will only experience more of it.
- ✓ What am I learning?
- ✓ How is it going so far?
- ✓ What changes are you noticing?
- ✓ How is your sleep?
- ✓ How is your energy level?
- ✓ How are your moods?
- ✓ What are your favorite new foods?
- ✓ What are your favorite new recipes?
- ✓ How do you feel without refined foods?
- ✓ Reconnect with your intention. Feel it, see it vividly. Really taste it!
 Connect with yourself as if the image of the new you is already reality.
